

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Chanáe Curtis

Soprano

Artist Manager: Rhian Williams
rhian.williams@harlequin-agency.co.uk

American soprano Chanáe Curtis studied at Ashland University, Ohio and completed her Master's degree at the Manhattan School of Music, New York City. In 2016, she graduated from the M.A. Opera Course at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama, Cardiff, where she was taught by and continues to work with Suzanne Murphy.

Roles whilst at the RWCMD include Alice Ford in Falstaff, Lady Billows in Albert Herring and Forester's Wife/ Mrs Pasek in The Cunning Little Vixen. Other roles include, Countess Almaviva in Le nozze di Figaro at Central City Opera, Colorado, Fiordiligi in Così fan tutte at the Oberlin in Italy Festival, Mimi in La Bohème at the Manhattan School of Music and Flora in a concert performance of La Traviata with Ashland Symphony Orchestra. Roles performed in opera scenes include the Title Role in Anna Bolena and Violetta in La Traviata at the Scuola di belcanto, Italy; Papagena in Die Zauberflöte at the Chautauqua Institution Voice Program; Sister Rose in Jake Heggie's Dead Man Walking and Sister Margaretta in The Sound of Music for Central City Opera; Adina in L'elisir d'Amore, Rosalinde in Die Fledermaus and Zerlina in Don Giovanni at Ashland University.

Chanáe has won numerous awards, including the Dame Shirley Bassey Vocal Scholarship, Eileen Price Lieder Prize and Dolan Evans Award while at RWCMD; the Rotary Club Prize in the 2016 'Citta di Alcamo' International Opera Singing Competition in Italy and also in 2016, the prestigious Pathfinder Award sponsored by the Arts Council of England.

Concert highlights include Strauss' Four Last Songs with the Royal Welsh College Symphony Orchestra at St David's Hall, Cardiff and Strauss' Morgen for HRH the Prince of Wales at Buckingham Palace, London. Chanáe recently made her recital début at St. Martin-in-the-Fields singing works by Samuel Barber and Strauss' Four Last Songs. She has performed Verdi's cavatina Ermani, Ermani Involami on BBC Radio 3's 'In Tune' and took part in a televised Masterclass with David Pountney as part of the 2017 BBC Cardiff Singer of The World Competition.

Her Oratorio work includes Mendelssohn's Elijah with the Manhattan School of Music Symphony Orchestra, the Fauré Requiem and Bach's Magnificat with the Ashland Symphony Orchestra and Handel's Messiah and Seven Last Words of Christ with the Galion Community Orchestra, Ohio.

Engagements last season included a recital at St-Martin-in-the-Field and the Te Deum from Verdi's Four Sacred Pieces with the Hallé Orchestra, conducted by Sir Mark Elder which was broadcast live on BBC Radio 3.

Chanáe is currently covering Tatyana in Eugene Onegin for Mid Wales Opera before she joins the Glyndebourne Festival Chorus for the Summer and English National Opera and Dutch National Opera as an ensemble member in their productions of Porgy & Bess and Britten's War Requiem.

Artist biographies are updated frequently, so please contact us for the latest version. This biography should not be reproduced or altered without permission.

HARLEQUIN